a. The Naval Weapons Support Center (NWSC), Crane, Indiana, assumed life-cycle serialized control of small arms for the Marine Corps on 22 April 1974. These reports are used to effect total control on the location and status of weapons, including annual and special reconciliation of records at NWSC with each Marine Corps activity charged with accountability of serialized small arms. NWSC also updates the Department of Defense (DoD) central small arms register at Rock Island, Illinois, on a monthly basis.

b. At the direction of the Commandant of the Marine Corps (CMC), the Commanding General (Code 824-1), Marine Corps Logistics Base (MCLB), Albany, Georgia became program manager in lieu of CMC (Code LMP). The functions transferred to MCLB, Albany, are identified by the reference.

4. Scope. This directive is applicable to Weapon System/Equipment Management Directorate (WS/EMD) (Code 820) and Comptroller Division (Code 400).
